SURPRISE PARTY TO CAPT. AND MRS. METTERS

A most complete and successful surprise party was given to Capt. and Mrs. F. W. Metters at the home of E. A. Jacobson on the Wai'alae road last evening.

Capt. Metters, chief boatswain, U. S. N., and for some time the commander of the U. S. S. Navajo, has been retired, and with Mrs. Metters and the two children, will leave shortly for the coast.

Mr. and Mrs. Metters were, ostensibly, invited by the Jacobsons to their home for a nice, quiet "last evening" as it were, but the "thing was loaded." Mrs. Jacobson had caused some 30 intimate friends of the Metters to gather at the corner, and at the psychological moment the surprise marchers entered the house singing "On the Beach at Waikiki." The affair was of the Hawaiian hook-up order, each guest bringing a gift, purely Hawaiian, for the Metters.

Yellow was the color in flowers and other decorations that made a very pretty showing.

Mr. and Mrs. Metters acknowledged that the surprise was complete and expressed their appreciation of the occasion.

Seven or eight tables of 500 were soon in full swing that filled up a delightful evening to a very late hour, when refreshments were served.

The winners at the card tables were: First prizes, Mrs. M. T. Simonson and Mr. McMullen. Mr. William Foster was handed the booby.

Those present were Mr. and Mrs. F. W. Metters, Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Jacobson, Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Foster, Mr. and Mrs. O. Scott, Mr. and Mrs. M. T. Simonson, Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Flebig, Mr. and Mrs. Carl Flebig, Mr. and Mrs. C. F. Merrill, Mr. and Mrs. A. M. Ormiston, Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Whitehead, Mr. and Mrs. R. F. Clayton, Mr. and Mrs. B. Lee, Mr. and Mrs. Bert Lightfoot, Mrs. Wright, Miss Marion Wright, Mr. McMullen, Mr. Stanley Wright.

MISS CLARA PEARSON A HOSTESS

Miss Clara Pearson was hostess at her apartments at the Donna, honoring Mrs. J. A. Palmer of Davenport, Iowa, wife of a famous chiropractor. Mrs. Palmer is a guest at the Moana Hotel. She will leave for Hilo and the volcano on Thursday.

The apartments were a riot of color, the hibiscus being used abundantly. Baskets of long fringed lacy ferns made the rooms delightful. Miss Virginia Sanborn played several selections on the ukulele and also gave several beautifully rendered songs. Miss Pearson also sang. The guests enjoying Miss Pearson's hospitality were Mrs. J. A. Palmer, the guest of honor; Mrs. William D. Westervelt, Mrs. James Wakefield, Madame Sutherland, Mrs. A. Patterson, Mrs.

Graves, Mrs. W. Clark, Mrs. Seeley, Mrs. John Erdman, Mrs. Caum, Miss Pearl Sutherland, Mrs. Cameron, Mrs. W. Beadle, Mrs. William Alanson Bryson, Mrs. Wyman of Fort Shafter, Mrs. Carpenter, Mrs. A. A. Ebersole, Mrs. William Ouderirk, Mrs. Wikander, Mrs. J. Witson and Miss Virginia Sanborn.

A COMING BAZAAR

The Golden Circle Sewing Club, Leahi Chapter No. 2, will hold a bazaar on Saturday, October 21, the proceeds to be used in furnishing a room at the King's Daughter's home. The usual number of fancy work booths will be in evidence. Lovely needlework will be on sale as well as cushions and a great number of other useful articles; a candy booth of delicious home-made coconut creams, walnut and chocolate fudge, as well as many of the candies that are always a drawing card. A grabbag for the amusement of the youngsters will be an added attraction.

The delicatessen table will attract the housewife, for here may be purchased roast fowl and poultry as well as baked hams, veal loaves, mince, apple and custard pies, cakes of every kind, as well as cookies, crullers, doughnuts, bread, rolls and salads. Surely one need not worry about the Sunday evening supper with such an assortment of foods to select from. This bazaar will be held in Bishop park.

MATSONIA ARRIVALS

The Matsonia, arriving this morning, brought a crowd of "home people" who have been away for various periods of time. Princess Kawananakoa, who has been in Washington and New York for the past two years, comes for a short visit with her sisters, Mrs. Walter Macfarlane and Mrs. Robert Shingle. A lot of pleasures are being planned in honor of Princess Abbie, as she is affectionately known to her friends of years.

The princess is one of the most charming of Hawaii's daughters, with her fascinating personality and vivacious manner. She is always a much-sought-after lady, and is always spoken of as a daughter of Hawaii who is irresistible. No doubt society will deluge her with favors while she is here.

Mr. and Mrs. J. Morton Riggs, who have been enjoying a brief visit to the mainland, come home very gladly, for both say there is no place like Honolulu. Mr. and Mrs. William Williamson are others who are glad to get home.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank C. Atherton are home from a stay of several months in the Pacific Northwest, most of the time at Seattle.

Dr. and Mrs. I. J. Shepherd returned this morning after three months' visit East.

Mr. and Mrs. George Angus, after a four months' visit to both the East and West coasts, returned this morning. Judge and Mrs. William Whitney, who have been enjoying a mainland vacation, were home-coming passengers on this morning's steamer.

DAUGHTERS OF HAWAII SALE

The lanai of the Royal Hawaiian Hotel will be a busy place on Saturday morning of this week, for here will be held a delicatessen sale to help the Daughters of Hawaii in the work they are doing. The various women who have charge of the many tables are among the finest cooks in Honolulu and the sale, safe to say, will last but a couple of hours. Things will be purchased almost as soon as they are set out on the sales tables. The Daughters of Hawaii are making a specialty of herring and potato salad as well as lau laus. Other articles for sale will be roast chickens, ducks, turkeys, hams, meat loaves, as well as pies of every known pie filling, bread, rolls, jellies, mayonnaise and last but not most important home made toothsome candies of all sorts, including coconut cream, old-fashioned molasses, chocolate and walnut and raisin fudge, peanut brittle and many other kinds.

THE INGALLS' RECITAL

Mrs. A. B. Ingalls' violin recital for the benefit of the war orphans will take place at the Opera House Saturday evening of this week. The tickets will be on sale at the Territorial Messenger Service Thursday, Friday and Saturday at popular prices.

The only vocal number on the program will be a group of songs composed by Edith Simonds, the talented writer, who has recently visited the islands as the guest of Mrs. Francis Gay, and who made a very marked impression upon all who heard her play. Miss Clemence Gifford will sing these songs. Miss Gifford is a young Honolulu girl of 16 who has a voice of unusual quality and promise, though entirely untrained. As yet she has done very little work, but Honolulu may watch her progress from the present untrained state to future excellence with interest.

JUDGE AND MRS. A. G. M. ROBERTSON'S DINNER

Around a table which was most attractive with its central decoration of Tantalus violets and lace fern, Judge and Mrs. Alexander G. M. Robertson entertained a company of dinner guests on Friday evening. The hour after dinner was a musical one, both Mrs. Robertson and Mr. Frank Moss contributing much to the informal program. Mrs. Robertson sang several very lovely selections and Mr. Moss was most generous with his playing.

It was an evening of genuine enjoyment to Judge and Mrs. Robertson's guests, who were Mr. and Mrs. Charles Chillingworth, Miss Abby Buchanan, Mr. Frank Moss, Mr. Walter Marshall of Hilo and Mr. Herman Lathrop Tucker.

MISS EVELYN SCOTT'S PARTY

Miss Evelyn Scott was hostess at a very enjoyable party last Friday evening when she entertained a company of friends by inviting them to go and see the Bronze Revue at the Bijou. The show over, the guests motored to Heimele's, where the rest of the evening was spent in dancing.

The guests enjoying Miss Scott's hospitality were Mr. and Mrs. William Ouderirk, Mr. and Mrs. Kelley Brown, Mr. and Mrs. Dan McCorriston, Mr. and Mrs. Van Anderson, Miss G. Mason, Miss Pearl McCarthy, Mrs. Lovett, Miss Louise McCarthy, Mr. A. Budge, Mr. McMillan, Mr. Guy Rothwell, Dr. Alford Wall and Mr. Steever.

GREGG-FORREST

This morning at nine o'clock, Miss Margaret Forrest, youngest daughter of Mrs. J. Forrest of Alea, and Mr. James I. Greig, manager of the Schofield branch of Bishop & Company's bank, were united in marriage at St. Andrew's cathedral. They left on the Mauna Kea for a short honeymoon trip to Hilo. After November 1 Mr. and Mrs. Greig will be at home to their friends at Schofield.

WEDDING ANNOUNCEMENT

The following wedding announcement cards have been received by the friends of the young couple:

Mr. E. Coit Heibron announces the marriage of his daughter, Martha to Mr. Alapaki E. H. Smith Monday, October the second, nineteen hundred and sixteen. Honolulu, Hawaii.

A DANCE AT THE PLEASANTON

The management of the Pleasanton Hotel is giving a dance for its guests and their friends on Thursday evening. It is to be an informal affair and delightful as are all of the parties given at this homelike hostelry. Mr. Rowan extends a cordial invitation to the society set and service folk to come and enjoy the hotel's hospitality.

ISLANDER ENGAGED TO MAINLAND BELLE

Mrs. Clara Eugenia Dunne of Seattle announces the engagement of her daughter, Christine Isobel, to Mr. August Maluhia Schmidt of Hilo. The wedding is to be a November one when Mr. and Mrs. Schmidt will make the trip to Hilo, where Mr. Schmidt is in business at Waialae.

MOONLIGHT DANCE

The Country Club is the setting for a moonlight dance tonight. A large company of guests are expected and several dinner parties have been arranged. The moonlight dances of the Country Club are always an anticipated pleasure for it is about the coolest place in Honolulu to enjoy an evening of dancing.

A BRIDE AND GROOM ARRIVE

On the Makura arrived Mr. and Mrs. David Semple. They were married in Vancouver just before the ship left port. The bride came all the way from Aberdeen, Scotland, to meet her fiancé, he going from Honolulu to meet his bride. They are guests at the Colonial and plan to make their home here.

A CARD AFTERNOON

Mrs. Renton Hind has invited a company of guests for Thursday of this week, honoring Mrs. Denbigh, Mrs. E. L. S. Gordon's sister, and Mrs. Trenfield, Mrs. Donald Ross' sister. Both ladies are on their first trip to Hawaii.

A STUDIO EXHIBIT

Beginning Thursday, Mr. Ambrose Patterson, the artist, is going to have a fruit view exhibit of some of the pictures he has finished since coming here. The exhibit continues Friday and Saturday, from 4 to 10 p. m.

A LUNCH

Mrs. Walter Macfarlane is entertaining a small company of guests at luncheon today, honoring her sister, Princess Abigail Kawananakoa.

Rev. and Mrs. W. C. Merritt, the former a former president of Oahu College, left on the Mauna Kea. They had a very delightful visit in Honolulu among their friends of a quarter of a century ago. A good joke is recalled by one of the old students at the "Prep." One morning the president was superintending the planting of a young tree, which after 25 years is now a huge tree, when one of the
